Professional Valuations

Are your valuables properly insured?

Do you need a valuation?

More than ever, insurance companies are insisting on professional valuations for high-value and specified items, including jewellery, watches and silverware. Having an up-to-date valuation is vital to ensure that your insurance policy covers your possessions adequately. Often people make a claim for such items and are shocked to find that they are not covered for the full amount.

Valuations you can trust

The Goldsmiths' Company Assay Office has teamed up with the Guild of Valuers & Jewellers, the UK's leading jewellery valuation specialist, to offer professional valuations for your jewellery, watches and silverware items, complete with digital images and a detailed description of each item.

All valuations are carried out by highly experienced independently regulated valuers and are delivered in accordance with National Association of Goldsmiths guidelines.

Each valuation is also registered online to the secure e-register™ database free of charge, giving you lasting proof of ownership and peace of mind. e-register™ provides the police and your insurer with secure and exclusive access to your valuation, ensuring you are properly protected in the event of a loss or theft.

Valuation days

These unique days, held at a variety of venues across the UK, provide a rare opportunity to have a one-on-one consultation with our expert valuers whilst your pieces are professionally appraised. You will also receive a comprehensive portfolio of your items to take home with you. Consultations are by appointment only.

Drop-off service

Your items can be dropped off and picked up with your completed valuation portfolio at either our main office at Goldsmiths' Hall, or our Hatton Garden premises at 17 Greville Street. Alternatively, you may send your articles to the Goldsmiths' Company Assay Office and have them returned by Special Delivery.

A personalised online portfolio

Registration to the e-register™ database also allows you to manage your portfolio online. You can apply for a secure login and use the 'My Portfolio' area to view your valuation, set reminders for revaluation and add new valuations in the future. Online portfolios are completely anonymous so pose no security threat to yourself, your premises or your valuables.

Home visits

If your collection is of a significant size or value, we offer a tailored home valuation service, allowing you to have your items professionally valued in the comfort and security of your own home.

The Goldsmiths' Company Assay Office was formed by Royal Charter in 1327 and since then has been protecting the precious metal industry through hallmarking – one of the oldest forms of consumer protection.

Why the Goldsmiths' Company Assay Office?

The Goldsmiths' Company Assay Office today prides itself on integrity, quality and service and, alongside its core hallmarking business and valuation services, also provides antique plate services and educational programmes.
